

Acknowledgements

Firstly to my eldest daughter, Sabrina, who encouraged me to get moving with this memoir after speaking with her regarding my intentions to put my memories into print. Then came the booklet called:

“REMEMBER WHEN”

The inside cover reads:

To: Dear Dad and Mum
From: Sabrina
Date: 24th December, 2012

The richness of life lies in the memories
we have forgotten.

Next, thanks to City of Boroondara (Camberwell), who mailed me, with their compliments, a 113 page book by author Ruth McLean entitled, “From Many Lands About Voices And Stories - A Century Of Change In Boroondara”.

Now this publication would not have been possible without the careful typing and layout of Wendy Perston and her daughters, Kerrie and Leah. So many thanks, Wendy, for interpreting my many inserts, after thoughts, spelling, and my scrawly printing, done when I was tired into the night. You have been terrific!

And lastly, to my dear wife, Jean, who put up with my many hours in the study, writing this autobiography. Her valuable memory and particularly her ability to remember names of people who I had temporarily forgotten.

Jean, your memoirs are next!!
