

SCHEMATIC ILLUSTRATION OF THIS DISCIPLESHIP MODEL

SENIOR PASTOR

(12 Senior Pastor's Assistants) After being trained and equipped by the Senior Pastor, each Pastor's assistant is given their own small group to lead. (Step A) After the Pastor's assistants have proved faithful in leading their own small group, the Senior Pastor also releases them to train up new small group leaders (up to 12) themselves. (Step B) They continue to be a part of the Senior Pastor's Leader Class

Step A

EACH OF THE SENIOR PASTOR'S ASSISTANTS RAISE UP AND SHEPHERD A SMALL GROUP OF UP TO TWELVE MEMBERS

Twelve Small Group Leaders (Pastors Assistants) who continue to be mentored by the Senior Pastor in his leadership group

Up to 144 additional new Small Group Leaders have now been raised up who are being mentored by the Senior Pastor's Assistants

Step B

EACH PASTOR'S ASSISTANT IS EVENTUALLY RELEASED TO TRAIN UP SMALL GROUP LEADERS HIMSELF (UP TO TWELVE SMALL GROUP LEADERS)

The members in the small groups run by the Senior Pastor's Assistants are trained up to become small group leaders themselves. (Step C) After a period of time they will also be released to train up small group leaders themselves. (Step D) They will continue to be mentored in the small groups run by the Pastor's Assistants. (Leadership training)

Up to 1728 additional new Small Group Leaders (Step D) can now be raised up. They are all being mentored and discipled by those leaders who have been raised up by the Senior Pastor's twelve assistants.

Step C

THE TWELVE SMALL GROUP LEADERS TRAINED UP BY EACH OF THE SENIOR PASTOR'S ASSISTANTS NOW LEAD THEIR OWN SMALL GROUP OF UP TO TWELVE MEMBERS. AFTER SOME TIME THEY ARE ALL EVENTUALLY RELEASED Step D TO RAISE UP NEW SMALL GROUP LEADERS THEMSELVES (UP TO TWELVE SMALL GROUP LEADERS EACH)

(In step D, each of these small group members are now also trained up and equipped to open up their own new small group)

MULTIPLYING SMALL GROUP LEADERS

Using this discipleship model mature small group leaders are raised up who have ongoing accountability to other leaders. All small group leaders are both ministered to as well as ministering to others. After the twelve small group leaders released by each of the Senior Pastor's twelve assistants (12 x 12 = 144) have all raised up twelve more new small group leaders, an additional 1728 new small group leaders will be running small groups. (144 x 12) When these new leaders raise up the next group of small group leaders in the future, there will be up to 20,736 additional small group leaders. (1728 x 12)
